The Critical Incident Technique (or CIT) is a set of procedures used for collecting direct observations of human behavior that have critical significance and meet methodically defined criteria. These observations are then kept track of as incidents, which are then used to solve practical problems and develop broad psychological principles. A critical incident can be described as one that makes ...

A Lawyer Who CARES 2018 Trial Lawyer of the Year. Nick Rowley has won, through caring about his clients and justice, over a billion dollars in record setting verdicts and settlements for injury victims and their families.

Nicholas C. Rowley " Personal Injury Trial Lawyer

The task of a trial lawyer is to convince a judge or jury to believe in the truth of a client's case. However, in many complex trials, the underlying facts are not as easily understood by the fact-finder as they would be in, say, a murder case or a traffic accident. A case, especially the type of ...
