When it comes to health, one of the biggest, yet most common mistakes people make is only focusing on weight loss. Thatâ€™s why diet pills exist, why liposuction is even a thing, and why fads like the Atkins Diet skyrocketed in popularity (who cares if youâ€™re putting endless amounts of cholesterol and saturated fats into your body â€“ you look great).

Why people do what they do?. In part three of this series, I hope we can be better worshipers and leaders through understanding Worship and Psychology. First and foremost, our mindset must be theologically saturated through a living relationship with God's word and His presence. This is a foundational prerequisite and it gives us a glimpse of heaven's perspective.
