Scolardi, still a college student, suggests going case by case in deciding what kind of notebook to use. "For general class stuff, I tend to use a one-subject spiral notebook with a durable cover. I prefer notebooks with poly covers, since cardstock covers tend to tear away from the spiral edge by the end of the semester," she says.

How to organize your college binder. January 26, ... I chose this one because it's thin enough to fit into my college bag and is usually big enough for all of the course material I get. The choice of binder is up to you though, whether you'd rather have a big and sturdy one, one with a document pocket at the front, see-through, multi ...
